Furniture refers to movable objects designed to support human activities such as seating, sleeping, eating, and storage. It includes items like chairs, tables, beds, sofas, cabinets, and wardrobes, made from materials such as wood, metal, plastic, or glass. Furniture serves both functional and aesthetic purposes, enhancing the comfort and appearance of homes, offices, and public spaces. Modern furniture designs blend style with ergonomics, offering innovative solutions for space-saving and multifunctionality. Whether traditional, contemporary, or minimalist, furniture plays a crucial role in interior design and daily living.
